TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Christians have always imagined initiation as a journey. Saul was on a journey on the Damascus road when he was knocked off his feet by an encounter with the Risen Lord. After stumbling, blind, to a Christian household, he emerged days later, baptized and clear-sighted, as Paul. Enlightened, he begins a life so disconnected with his former ways that it seems to require a new name. The custom of acquiring a new name at baptism is thus very old, and is a deeper question than “naming the baby”; it is, rather, one of a break with the past and a place in the community. The first Christians mostly kept their pagan names, and therefore blended in with their neighbors. Eventually, some people began to name their children after Christian virtues or feasts, like “Ephiphanus” for a child born on Epiphany, or “Fides” for faith. Later, the names of beloved martyrs or saints began to take hold, as older converts exchanged their birth names for the names of admired saints. Today, catechumens may still choose to assume a “Christian name” before baptism, and parents are still asked to be mindful of our tradition as they give a name to a child. —Rev. Wednesday of Holy Week

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ:

Let us feast with joy in the Lord!

Such is the admonition in the Gospel Alleluia of Easter. We have spent this time of Lent as a time of preparation, prayer, and promise. We have sought to grow closer to the Lord Jesus and allow his love to transform us.

We arrive now at Easter. The Father has raised the Lord Jesus from the dead. We listen to the stories that bring us hope – “He has been raised, He is not here!”

God promises that all will be made “new.” And, my brothers and sisters, God’s promises are trustworthy. Jesus is alive! While sitting at the right hand of the Father, he also in mystery accompanies us on our journey.

Whatever brokenness, darkness, sin, or suffering with which we are struggling, the Lord Jesus is alive and present, accompanying us along the journey. Let us trust Him. He will heal and help us. Let us feast with Joy in the Lord and bring such Joy to the world!

Sincerely in Christ,
